

JEWELRY BOX

FAB FIVE

Chanel's celebrated No. 5 fragrance inspires a playful brooch and other jewels.

On the 100th anniversary of Chanel No. 5 perfume, the French fashion house has created 123 high jewelry pieces meant to evoke, in both literal and subliminal ways, the world-famous fragrance. The ribboned No. 5 brooch, with its diamond-studded numeral, features an amber-color topaz drop that weighs over 30 carats. It's intended to suggest the shimmering effect of the perfume on the body. For details see Sources, page 134.
